

DONAHUE WALKS OUT OF WHA MEETING

Terming a special meeting of the Wilmington Housing Authority an "Iron Curtain Meeting" and saying "I'll have no part of it," James P. Donahue, former chairman, and member of the Wilmington Housing Authority, staged a grand walk-out, during a special meeting at the WHA headquarters, Monday night.

He left behind him Chairman Eddie Forrest and member Ralph Peterson, less than a quorum. Frustrated, the two men recessed and went home.

The WHA, since the resignation of State Member Edward J. Sullivan, last winter, has had difficulty in getting quorums for its meetings.

The meeting had been called for 10 pm Monday, in the office of the WHA on Denning Way by Chairman Eddie Forrest.

It was called to order at 10:15 pm.

Immediately afterwards Donahue asked Forrest if the members had been notified. "Did you talk to Mr Peterson?" "Did you talk to Mr Rice?"

Forrest affirmed in each case that he did, and tried to read a section of the WHA By-Laws, citing his authority to call a special meeting.

Donahue interrupted to ask "Did you talk to me?"

"I called, and there was no answer," Forrest stated, and went on to say he couldn't get a quorum for 8 pm meetings.

Donahue read a prepared statement, which took perhaps three minutes, at the end of which he walked out of the door.

The Statement
In my years as a member of this Authority I have never known a special meeting being called at this time of night, nor have I ever heard of any board in this town calling a public meeting at 10 o'clock at night.

I have heard of loop holes being used on the so-called Open Meeting Law, but to call a meeting of this time of night, when most people are thinking of or are in the process of going to bed doesn't make sense.

The very people you represent in the Elderly Housing Project are in or in the process of going to bed. The men in the Veteran's project are hitting the hay so they may go to work tomorrow and put bread and butter on the table for their dependents.

All the people in this Commonwealth are paying for both these projects at the rate of 2 1/2 percent subsidy, therefore they too are entitled to attend this so-called public meeting at 10 o'clock at night.

Gentlemen: I do realize that not many people attend public meetings. Whether they are interested or not, I will never know, but to call a meeting at 10 o'clock at night is a 99 and 44/100 percent sure way of not having them present. I for one will have no part of it. In my book I term this an Iron Curtain meeting, members of the Authority allowed only. Thank you for your time gentlemen, and good night!

Forrest's Statement
After Donahue's departure the two remaining members of the board, unable to transact business because of a lack of a quorum, waited to see if member Ernest Rice would show up. Rice not attending, the board recessed about 11 pm, at which time Chairman Eddie Forrest stated, for the record:

"I believe that Mr Donahue has been unfair to the board. The reason that this meeting was called was because of the irregular working hours of the members of the board."

A quorum was not reached at the last regular meeting at 7:30, and the members were contacted as to what time they could make a meeting. The general consensus was at 10 o'clock.

The reason for the members sacrificing their time to come to a special meeting at this time of the night is because of pressing business, namely the Roberto case, bids on gutters and replacing clapboards, which has to be completed before the Authority can call for public bids for painting the 13 units of the Veteran's Housing Project, which has been authorized by the State Housing Board.

The next regular meeting of the WHA is next Tuesday, at 7:30 pm.

SWIMMING LESSONS START

MONDAY AT BEACH

Non-swimmers have a chance to learn the art, starting Monday morning at the Town Beach, at Silver Lake, according to Head Life Guard Bill Hall.

Registration can be made at the beach, anytime this week or next, with any of the Life Guards.

Dicky Allard, Wilmington High School football star, is to be head instructor of the swimming class, which starts at 11 am Monday, and will continue for the summer, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Classes on each day will start at 11.

Guard will also be an instructor.

Page, after the first week, will concentrate on instructions to the non-swimmers, while Allard will teach those who have learned the rudiments and are ready to go on to learning the different strokes, methods of swimming, etc.

The beach, which was not very crowded yesterday, is open to Wilmington residents daily from 10 am to 8 pm, with four life guards, Hall, Allard, Page, and Wilmington's famous Half Back, Jackie Bowen, on duty.

THEY HAVE REASON TO BE PROUD

Three young ladies, 12 years old, in clothing they have made for themselves, proudly wear blue ribbons given them by the 4H Judges, at a Dress Evaluation Day, in Reading.

Betty Smith, 6 State Street, Bonnie Ramsdell of Glen Road, and Edith Young, 8 State Street, are members of the Nifty Needles 4H Sewing Club Mrs. Paul Standish, Leader.

RICKY AND BARRY

Both Ricky Proton, Wilmington's Two-No-Hit pitcher, and Barry Needham, Randolph's Four No-Hit pitcher have been chosen to play in the Hearst

All-New England Sand Lot Team. Ricky's 21-3 record, over three years of play, with 106 strikeouts and only 15 walks, is one of the most phenomenal in New England.

Two teams of 16 boys each are to play in the Fenway on July 31st or August first, teams chosen from all over New England.

"While nothing is definite yet Red Sox Scout Larry Woodall has been quoted as saying 'It will probably be Ricky against Barry'."

Ricky lost to Barry in a ninth inning heart breaker, in the Eastern Mass Finals, at Boston College park.

When the two men meet again it will be a game that all of Wilmington will want to watch.

IT WAS A QUIET FOURTH OF JULY
Wilmington experienced a very quiet Fourth of July yesterday. Up to 3 pm there had been no accidents worthy of notice, and very little activity. The sidewalks were, to all intents and purposes, rolled up.

Flags were displayed all over town, and in front of stores and the veteran's clubhouses.

ARRL TEAM HAD 489

CONFIRMED CALLS

Wilmington's amateur radio operators, members of the American Radio Relay League and of Wilmington's Civil Defense, made a new record, June 23-24. (Picture, last week's Town Crier).

The team, working from Camp Forty Acres, exchanged over 600 calls with other radio stations throughout the US and foreign countries.

After eliminating duplications the team had 489 station loggings, with a total of 3097 points.

Last year, as Eastern Mass. champions, they logged a little over 400 stations.

HOW DOES MIDDLESEX COUNTY WORK IN ESSEX?

It's all probably very simple, and arrangements have probably been made for the type of problem that exists, but we cannot but be fascinated at the proposed Chapter 90 work on upper Ballardvale Street.

The County Commissioners are to have a public hearing, on July 17th at 11 am., on the proposal.

Possibly the area in the proposal does not reach as far as the Andover line, but if it does we are curious as to what the Commissioners might think and do.

For the upper part of Ballardvale Street is partly in Wilmington and partly in Andover. In other words the County line, between Essex and Middlesex, splits the street for nearly half a mile.

In some places the road is in Andover, in some places in Wilmington, and for a considerable distance the county-town line is right in the middle of the road.

And how does Middlesex County spend money in improving the road in another county?

ARE OUR STREETS REALLY DIRTY?

We are disturbed by a report given by one of our fair readers. She has just returned home after a trip through the mid-West, and she stopped us the other day with a remark that she "never realized how dirty the streets of Wilmington were until she had done some traveling".

Well, we have Wilmington Square, through which sometimes we have thought we should use snowshoes, to keep over the dirt level, and every now and then there is a place along the roadside where some city dweller thinks a dump could be established, and starts one on his own account.

But every now and then the Square does get swept up, and our gendarmes do occasionally catch someone making a private dump, and make them clean it up.

But Wilmington Square does get pretty dirty sometimes, and we believe it was that to which the lady was referring. In the years gone by Ricky Froton's grandfather was a street sweeper par excellence, in the Square. In recent years it has been more of a spasmodic thing, with some gentleman from the Old Age Housing Project pushing a broom around, from time to time when the town hall seems to have a buck or two to spare.

Every now and then, when there is a particularly good amount of dirt blowing around in the square we wish we were back in the good old US

A DISTURBING BOOK

Navy, where there was a clean scrub down, fore
and aft, every morning.

Of course that might not go over so well in Wilmington, but perhaps, once in a blue moon, somebody could prevail upon the Brave Fire ad-dies on duty at 5am to take a hose up to the square and really give the place a washdown.

This column has a rule never to try to settle international problems.

Many writers in small weekly and daily papers try to do this. They are simply dodging the local issues.

We call it Afghanistanism - that is, the Shah of Afghanistan won't come bursting through the office doornext morning and threaten to punch the editor in the nose, if Afghanistan is the subject, rather than the Selectman who is taking part in an illegal dump scandal.

We prefer, very much so, to report on that Selectman, even if the entire board turns around and demands apologies.

So it is with some apology that this column,
this week, refers to a book on Communist China,
written by a French professor of Political Science, entitled China and her Shadow.

The popular conception in the United States today is that Communist China is defeating her own purpose, with collective communes, and tribulations caused by mismanagement.

Professor Mende shows that this is not the case. The picture he paints is one of a nation emerging into power, a power that can be a terrible thing for our United States in a decade or two.

We borrowed our copy from the Wilmington Public Library. We believe other people should read it too.

SAM POLLARD IS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

Samuel S. Pollard, twice Mayor of Lowell, and a long time
City Councilor has declared his intention to be a candidate for the congressional seat in the newly formed fifth congressional district.
Democrat Pollard will seek his party's nomination in September for the right to oppose the Republican nominee in the district which now includes the Democratic strongholds of Lowell, Lawrence and Woburn.

The new Fifth District is in tone and character a Democratic area and deserves a Democratic congressman, the ex-Mayor declared.

Pollard earned his political spurs as a young man, fresh from World War II, in which he was wounded twice during the European campaign. He served
12 years in the Lowell City Council, and is the only man elected to two terms as Mayor
in recent years.

A pharmaceutical salesman, Pollard is widely known to business, fraternal and veterans groups throughout the new Fifth District and has already formed a strong supporting organization to campaign for Congress.

A former vice-president of the Massachusetts Mayors' Association, he is married, and the father of three children.

TOWN NOTES

It's Dry

We reported an inch of rain
last week, along with the note
that we wouldn't have to water
the lawn.

That did it. There has been no rain since. The brooks and the Ipswich are down quite low
- and the mosquitoes are not too plentiful.

Its Mrs Guarino

The returns are in, and there is no doubt as to who picked the first peas, in Wilmington
this year.

Mrs Al Guarino of Forest St.
had peas for dinner on Bunker Hill Day, picked from her own garden, and hereby is awarded the care and trust of the Golden Pea Spoon for one year.

As we remarked last year, Mrs
Guarino has a secret weapon - Her husband, Al. It was he who dig the garden.

Wins New Dodge

People who take raffle chances sponsored by some of our local societies or churches always seem to watch the first prize go to somebody in Everett or Dorchester, or else Timbuctoo.
That's how the people in a
New Jersey Technical School
must feel, too.

For mail carrier Richard Woods won a new Dodge Dart, on a raffle. He was notified by a Special Delivery letter Monday afternoon.

Dick is going to New Jersey
next Monday to pick up his new car.

The Russian Delegate

About three years ago, the pupils of Wilmington High School, under the leadership of teacher Bob Saba, produced
"A Night at the U.N."

It was quite an event, and attracted a lot of notice.

During the course of the evening various pupils spoke in the role of representatives or ambassadors from the various nations.

One of the was Kenneth Spinnelli, of Hopkins Street. Ken was the Ambassador, if we remember correctly from the USSR.

The point of all this is that Ken is now studying the Russian Language, at the Harvard Summer School.

He is going into his Junior year at Boston University, and is studying international relations. He figures that three years at the Harvard Summer School will be the equivalent of a whole year of study, in Russian, this being, of course
in addition to his other studies.

Over 80 Summers

Somewhat at the opposite end of the spectrum is Roger Buck
of High Street, who retired two weeks ago, after running a business in Reading for many years - the gas station
near the Reading Depot.

Roger, a direct descendant of the first Roger Buck of Wilmington, was born three doors
away from his present home,
and has lived on High Street
all his life.

Over 80 years old he is still active and spry, and was the subject of a story in the Reading Chronicle two weeks ago.

Speedsters

We don't know if the new Police Cruisers have anything to do with it, but the Wilmington Gendarmes have been catching about half a dozen speeders
every week.

Monday mornings, in front of Justice Henchey is quite a parade in Woburn Court.

Paul Lynch, the Chief De Gen-darmes says that on Wednesday July 11th he is going to really have a parade in front of His Honor.

The new cruisers were delivered last week, but they have the old radios in them. New ones are ordered, and ought to be along now anyway.

The lettering was done by Ray Hillier of Glen Road, while in the Wilmington Ford Garage.

Dental plate

Somebody, this year, or maybe a couple of years ago, lost a dental plate at Silver Lake, at the Town Beach, and it has been found recently, in the sand.

The lifeguards estimate that it is worth $150. It may be had by applying to the beach office, at the Town Beach.

No Gas

Jerry Pizzatti, who owns the Pineridge Cleaners in North Wilmington bought himself a new car - a Swedish Volvo, which is supposed to do 35 miles to the gallon, because he wanted to stop spending money on gas.

Jerry has had the car two weeks now, and so far hasn't put a drop of gas into the tank.

Sounds good? What has happened is that others have borrowed the car - and then had to walk back half a mile to the nearest gas station, and the borrowers are keeping Jerry's tank full.

They Still Might Do It

We note that the State Department of Public Works has placed some old railroad irons on end, around the traffic light near Lucci's store.

The light has been knocked down dozens of times, and may be again, as one side is still a little unprotected.

TYPE III POLIO VACCINE

Carole Ann Tyler was one of the nearly 500 persons who received permanent protection from Type III polio, by attending the Sabin Polio Clinic in the Old Age Housing headquarters, last Thursday.

Nurse Sylvia Levine is giving Carole's sister Rose Marie her vaccine. Only Rose Marie's hand is visible. The third young lady, all daughters of Mrs. James Tyler of Dorothy Avenue is Brenda Jean.

NO FISHING TRIP FOR BURKE

Driving his car with the parking lights on, in accordance with the suggestion of Governor Volpe, for the 4th of July Holiday, proved to be a disaster for John J. Burke of Gowing Road.

Burke drove up to Ballardvale to buy some bait for a fishing trip, and on the way back a short circuit in the parking light system set the car on fire.

Above, while Burke(right) waits, Fire Chief Arthur Boudreau and Fireman Earl Burns make certain that the fire, which ruined the car, is out.

The Wildcats lost the services of their star pitcher, Paul Currier, on June 21st, when he split his little finger - a wound requiring 10 stitches, and also lost Bob Smith, another regular, when Bob dislocated a finger.

INDIANS HAVE GOT TO WIN TOMORROW

HARD PLAYING INDIANS

The Little League season is drawing to a hot closeout, with the Avco Yankees definitely in the lead, and the Indians in hot pursuit. Tomorrow, at 6:15 pm the two teams will meet, at the Little League park behind the Glen Road School.

If the Indians come out on top, there will still be a race - but if the Indians should lose it will be all over but the shouting.

Even if the Indians do win the pennant race will not be over, for the Yankees can win by defeating the Tigers, in a make-up game to be played sometime next week.

In a Saturday morning Nuptial Mass on June 30th Miss Marie Katherine Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Reynolds of Westdale Avenue became the bride of Mr. Robert William Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Livingston of Plaistow, N.H.

The altar of St. Thomas Church was decorated with white and pink gladioli, and the Rev. Paul J. Bernabe officiated.

Mrs. Agnes Dunn of Medford was the soloist. She sang Ave Maria, by the Sisters of Notre Dame, and In A Monastery Garden. She was accompanied by Mrs. Estelle Shelley, organist.

The bride approached the altar in a tulle and chantilly lace gown, decorated with seeded pearls and rhine stones. The southern belle bouffant skirt had a tier of ruffles, the sleeves were pointed, finger length, and the neckline, sabrina, was jeweled.

A veil of tulle, bouffant style was held by a coronet of seeded pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of white poms and snapdragons, with a white orchid.

A reception was held, after the ceremony, at the Wakefield Lodge of Elks. Mrs. Dorothy Flodin of Columbia Street, a friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The reception hall was decorated with gladioli, mums and snapdragons, and there were flowers at each table, with a big centerpiece at the headtable. Music was provided by a three piece orchestra.

For her gown in the reception line, the other of the bride chose one of turquoise nylon, of street length. She wore an orchid corsage, and her accessories were white.
